So the 30 day Wholesale Deal Challenge really works Team Jen & Jamaal is trailing Chris but isn't far behind I know they will have a deal under contract in no time. Chris like I said before is built like the Terminator maybe his name should change to Determinator

I like that better I think we all should become Determinators.

Chris wants to share with you how he did it and what is next since he has already conquered putting his first deal under contract. Watch the interview below.
