I took a road trip down to Roanoke, VA with one of my coaching clients LaShawna. This is the first deal that she put under contract. I have never closed a deal down in the country before and this is the first time we both set foot down in Roanoke, VA check out the video below and watch LaShawna build her buyer's list using my CASH BUYER bandit sign technique.

Take Care,

P.S. LaShawna is a massive action taker she drove about 4 and a half hours down from Baltimore and back. I did help her drive back lol...
