I was out in the field the other day on my way to take some pictures and shot a video tour of one of our latest Wholesale Deals down in South Baltimore not far from the home fields of the Baltimore Ravens and Baltimore Orioles. This house was about 45 minutes from our offices I ended up spending about 3 hours out in the field due to a run in with a freight train. Check out the Video below:

Take Care,

Marcel

P.S. You must have patience with your wholesaling business especially in the beginning. Remember this if nothing else "It's a marathon not a sprint"
